BOARD REQUIRED TO BE INFORMANT

This Apparently the Only Course Provided for Prosecutions in Pharmacy Cases.

DRUGGISTS BEFORE COURT

Provisions of the Law Pointed Out to Justice Crutchfield,
Who Continued Cases.

Unless the State Board of Pharmacy makes the complaint, every druggist in Richmond can have an unregistered druggist behind the counter to compound prescriptions of physicians, and the Commonwealth's Attorney and the public are powerless to act in the matter.

This is the law, as was shown to Justice Crutchfield in Police Court yesterday morning, when several druggists were brought to the court upon information secured by Commonwealth's Attorney Minifree Folkes, tending to show that unregistered clerks had filled prescriptions, while no registered or assistant registered pharmacist was nearby.

The statute says that the Board of Pharmacy must be the informant, and that the Commonwealth's Attorney may then act upon this information. If the board never acts—and Mr. Folkes showed that it had not—then the public is at the mercy of the unregistered clerks who fill the prescriptions that are written by physicians.

Justice Crutchfield was impressed with this law, although he did continue the case until September the 10th, in order to allow the attorneys on each side time in which to prepare their statements regarding the case. But the fact that the board has not acted, and that the board of Pharmacy acted as the informant, instead of the Commonwealth's Attorney, he would not be warranted in further proceedings.

Some time ago the attention of Mr.
Folkes was called to the fact that there were several unregistered clerks in the city who were compounding prescriptions.
He was urged to take some steps in the matter. His informant told him that the board had not acted in the matter, and that it was time for the courts to take action.

Worked Up Cases.

Messrs. W. D. Ellington and Meredith E. Owen, of Manchester, were employed to ascertain the names of the clerks who were violating the law by filling prescriptions before they had been registered druggists. The two young men went to work with a full list of the names of the clerks in the different drug stores, and yesterday morning the following druggists appeared in court to answer the charges above mentioned.

Mr. Snook, No. 1017 West Main Street, for allowing John A. Fitch, his clerk, to compound prescriptions, the said Fitch not being a registered pharmacist or an assistant registered pharmacist.
Mr. Saunders, No. 1225 West Leigh Street, for allowing Irving Rice to fill prescriptions; W. W. Richardson, Seventeenth and Venable Streets, for allowing Frank Gilmore to fill a prescription; George Anderson, No. 1225 Broad Street, for filling a prescription; W. P. Partin, Broad Street, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Streets, for allowing C. W. Carr to fill a prescription.

The accused were placed against each of the men arrested. The statute under which they will be prosecuted is No. 1760, Code of Virginia.
Messrs. Owen and Meredith visited these drug stores and had prescriptions written by physicians filled. They would then ask for a duplicate of the prescription, and after paying for the medicine, would leave with the duplicate. This effectively settled the case against the young men, but the Board of Pharmacy had not acted.

Board Not Informed.

Mr. T. A. Miller, one of the members of the board, was in the Police Court yesterday, and said the matter had not been brought to his attention. "That was the reason the board had not acted," he said. The druggists had taken the initiative and gone to the Commonwealth's Attorney to protect themselves.

"The people of Richmond should be protected," he declared, "and I believe that I will be able to show that I have a right to prosecute these cases, whether the Board of Pharmacy takes cognizance of the matter or not."

C. & O. DOUBLE TRACKING.

Mr. Walker Given Contract for Work.

Mr. G. J. Walker, of Charles City county, was in the city yesterday closing a deal with the Matthews-Curtis Company, of Chifton Forge, Va., by which he subcontracted for a large part of the double track work along the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad between Grove and Morrisons.
Mr. Walker has for some time been employed as a waterway railroad work man at Jarratt's, Va., and was called to see Mr. Hall, on Sunday to close a plant consisting of thirty miles and all machinery necessary to carry on so large a work. While here he will make purchases of supplies, etc., for his camp at Brass.

SERIOUSLY HURT TESTING BOILER

Flues Blew Out at Locomotive Works, Badly Injuring Two Workmen.

J. O. Granger, of No. 2011 Maddox Hill, and R. B. Jenkins, of No. 1110 1/2 Dance Street, were testing a boiler at the Locomotive Works about 2 o'clock this morning, when the flues blew out and seriously injured both men.
The escaping steam hit Mr. Granger with its full force, and horribly burnt his face and the entire upper part of his body. Mr. Jenkins escaped with severe burns about the hands and arms.
The city ambulance was called to the scene, and Dr. Huggins attended the injured men. Mr. Granger was so fearfully scalded that his skin fell off at the touch.
He was swathed in bandages and rushed to the Virginia Hospital. His condition is very serious. Mr. Jenkins was attended to and left under care at the works. His injuries, while very painful, are not serious.

THE GESANGVEREIN.

Officers Are Chosen and Plans for the Year Discussed.

The Gesangverein Virginia met Monday evening for the purpose of reorganizing and deciding upon a plan for securing a new home. Sanger Hall having been recently sold, the organization was left without a home, and the board of directors, the society is now under a board of trustees.

Plans were also discussed concerning the annual celebration to be held early in August.
The officers of the organization are:
President, Charles Gasser; vice-president, Adolph Hartung; treasurer, Henry G.
Miller; recording secretary, Adolph Volkman; general secretary, Richard Wenzel; trustees—W. H. Zimmerman, F. C.
Ebel and Max S. Lindner.

Military Examinations.

Captain J. H. Borton and First Lieutenant A. M. Beach, of Company C, Seventy-second Virginia Infantry, Luray, Va., were in Richmond yesterday undergoing an examination for the Virginia volunteers.

Captain Borton is the principal of the high school at Luray.

CELEBRATE LABOR DAY ON EXTENSIVE SCALE

The Labor Day Committee met Monday night with the largest attendance of delegates of any previous session. Much enthusiasm was shown, and everything was decidedly successful.

Mr. E. W. Blakey, secretary of Typographical Union, No. 50, was elected marshal to lead the parade on September 3. The Idlewood management was present, and their grounds were selected to hold an all-day celebration. Fireworks and athletic contests will be the features of the day, and the committee has already been presented with several articles from prominent storekeepers as prizes, among the first being Pettit and Company, who have offered three handsome pieces of furniture as prizes for the various contests. The Globe Clothing Company, which says it will submit a valuable prize. Idlewood will make a special feature of the fireworks, which promise to be the best ever seen there.
Another feature of the day will be orations by several prominent speakers.

An excellent financial condition to the committee, being far in advance of any previous occasion, and all the sub-committees reported much progress in their work. From present indications there promises to be the greatest demonstration on Labor Day ever seen in this State.

DOWN TO HARD WORK FOR THE STATE FAIR

General offices of the Virginia State Fair Association have been opened at No. 701 East Main Street, where Assistant General Manager C. W. Smith is in charge, with Mark R. Lloyd as his assistant.

The new offices are thoroughly equipped with provision for the necessary corps of clerks and assistants in the front part of the building. The rear of the building has been partitioned off and furnished for a board meeting-room, as well as a place for conference between the managers and the corps of outside workmen. The building has been reserved for the accommodation of out-of-town visitors who have business with the officials.

Colonel Robert Hough, of Baltimore, one of the best-known starters in the country, has accepted the position of starting judge for the races here during State Fair Week. Colonel Hough declined several very flattering offers so as to take charge of the racing here this fall.
He was for some years a starter here for the old State Fair. He is a member of the American Racing Congress, and is secretary of the Maryland-Virginia Circuit.

His acceptance here will insure a long string of the finest races in the country, as racing men everywhere know his reputation for fairness, and often cut other tracks for the purpose of going on tracks where Colonel Hough is the starter.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Chesapeake County Makes Appropriation for Jamestown Exposition.

CARNIVAL OPENED LAST NIGHT

Man Goes to Sleep in Field and Wakes Without Shoes or Hat.
Personals and Briefs.

The board of supervisors of Chesapeake county yesterday made an appropriation of $1,600 for the Jamestown Exposition.
Chesapeake county will be represented at the exposition in 1907. Hundreds of citizens from Manchester and the county will be in Jamestown at some period during the exposition and they wish to look upon the exhibit furnished by Chesapeake.

The supervisors also passed a resolution offering by Mr. Joe Mitford, providing for a special levy upon all citizens of the county for the purpose of making better roads. There was not a dissenting voice heard when the resolution was passed.

It is the intention of the members of the board of supervisors to make the thoroughfares of the county much better.

The Carnival Opened.

The Hampton Amusement Company opened its carnival in Manchester last night. The tents are pitched on the lot behind the Hull Street, and there are ten large shows besides three free exhibitions.

More than a thousand persons were present last night, and Hull Street for two blocks was crowded.
The entertainment in the Christian Church, which opened last night, was much enjoyed. The moving picture machine was used for the first time.

The entertainment will be repeated tonight with a change of programme.

Shoes and Hat Lost.

James B. Lee went to Richmond Monday night, and didn't return until a late hour. He walked into the lot at the corner of Fifteenth and Hull Streets, and there he found a pair of shoes and a hat.
He didn't get up until the sun was shining into his face and all the world was looking beautiful. Lee jumped "all-a-sudden," and found that he had no shoes or hat. He had been robbed while he slept. He reported the matter to the police and received their sympathy.

Personals and Briefs.

After a pleasant visit to friends in Chesapeake county, Miss Myrtle Jewett has returned to her home, Twelfth and Sommes Streets.
Mrs. Boyd E. Hudson, of West Point, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cheatham, of Hull Street.

Three candidates were initiated at the meeting of the Manchester Aerie of Eagles last night.

Mr. Lacey Fendley has returned from his vacation. He visited Atlantic City, New York and other places of amusement.
Mrs. Edyth Holt, of No. 1222 Porter Street, is visiting relatives at Amelia Court-house.

Mrs. J. A. Davidson, of Farmville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Paul, of Manchester.

Mrs. Virginia Robinson and Miss Bertha Moody left yesterday for Ocean View for a well-earned vacation.

John Bunyan Dunnaway paid the May-day 15 yesterday morning for the privilege of yelling fire, murder, and a few other startling names.

Miss Ethel Wakefield, daughter of President John S. Wakefield, of the City, attended the meeting of the City Club at her home, No. 208
East Eleventh Street.

Vivian Hague, a well-known young man of the city, who has been in Colorado for some time for his health, is reported as being ill, and will return to Manchester within a few days.

Mr. John W. Massey is spending several weeks at Ocean View.

CANDIDATES COMING OUT FOR TWO YEARS HENCE

Although the election is almost three years off, there is considerable gossip about the probable candidates for the plums in the municipal government for the next time. City Sergeant J. C. Smith has been in place of Dr. Edwards, resigned.

John Bunyan Dunnaway paid the May-
startling names.
Miss Ethel Wakefield, daughter of President John S. Wakefield, of the City, attended the meeting of the City Club at her home, No. 208
East Eleventh Street.

Vivian Hague, a well-known young man
of the city, who has been in Colorado
ter within a few days.

Mr. John W. Massey is spending several weeks at Ocean View.

ELECT DR. PENDLETON.

Will Be Surgeon at State Fair in Place of Dr. Edwards, Resigned.

The Penitentiary Board yesterday elected Dr. J. S. Pendleton, of Scottsville, surgeon for the State Fair in place of Dr. Edwards, resigned. Dr. Pendleton is a well-known physician of Scottsville, and has been a member of the board of the Medical College of Virginia, having been appointed by Governor Cameron. He has been recommended by the college.

Dr. Edwards resigned to enter upon a larger field, and will return to his home in the fall. He has been a member of the Penitentiary Board, and where he will be associated with his father.

RAIN INTERFERED.

Tearing Down of Henrico Jail Walls to Begin To-Day.

All during yesterday people strolled around the Henrico Courthouse expecting to see the raising of the county jail walls. The work was interrupted by a heavy rain, and the rain which fell during the morning McClay, who has the task to complete, delayed starting the work. As this is the last day to begin tearing them down, Mr. McClay will doubtless begin on the walls this morning.

Painted the Jail.

In recognition of the kindly treatment he received while a prisoner for one month in the city jail, Buck Nichols painted two score of the walls of the jail. The work was done in the rear of the jail, and the walls were painted in a neat and attractive style. It came from jail yesterday after having served one month in the jail. The prisoners were sorry to part with him, for he had been a good prisoner and had done a lot of good while in the jail.

Return from Convention.

Messrs. Archie Burke and Wiley Lawrence, delegates from the Richmond Lodge of Elks to the Grand Lodge of the State of Virginia, returned from the West Monday night. They said that they had a fine time, and that the lodge was well represented. The lodge at Philadelphia was selected as the city for the next convention.

Still Unimproved.

Dr. J. W. Little, who is attending Judge James B. Lee, is still unimproved. The latter is still in the hospital, and his condition is still unimproved. Judge Lee was appointed on the Interstate Commerce Commission by President Cleveland, and served until March 6, 1906. He has been ill for several months.

Last Call for Dog Tax.

The last call has been made for the Henrico county dog tax. The tax will be placed in the hands of the collector for all those who have not paid by the last of July.

OLD DOVER MEETS AT GOLD SPRING

Baptist Hosts of This Section Gather at Hanover Church in Annual Session.

MANY GO FROM RICHMOND

Churches Here and in Other Parts of the Territory Well Represented.

The Dover Baptist Association, which has reached the venerable age of one hundred and twenty-three years, is holding its annual meeting this week with Cool Spring Church in Hanover county.
The session began yesterday morning and will continue through to-day and tomorrow.

The meeting opened yesterday morning with morning and afternoon sessions and a bounteous dinner at intermission. The churches in the association are well represented and a large company went out from Richmond, most of them returning last night.

Letters from the Churches.

Mr. T. H. Eftett, of this city, is president of the association, and makes an excellent report on the work of the churches. The letters from the churches were read at the morning session yesterday, and these are of a highly gratifying nature.

The report of the Education Board, which supports young men, who are preparing for the ministry at Richmond College and the Seminary, showed a good financial condition. Drs. Hatcher and Whitfield spoke on the work of the board.

Drs. Taylor and Fletcher spoke on the good work of the Sunday school and Bible Board, of which Dr. Fletcher is the tireless, wise and pushing secretary.

The association had an intermission at noon for dinner and another. The work of the day was continued in the afternoon session.

The first work at the afternoon session was a report by Mr. J. B. Wood on the Orphanage at Salem. Dr. Hatcher followed with a general historic sketch, and told of the present condition of the Orphanage. Mr. T. H. Eftett stated that the Orphanage was in need of a buggy horse.
A collection was taken up immediately, and nearly enough secured for a good animal.

Evangelistic Work.

The last and one of the most important discussions of the evening was of evangelistic work. The subject was discussed by Drs. McDonald, Jones and Taylor.
There was general concurrence in opinion of the importance of this work. But it was agreed that the pastor should accomplish this mission, and that professional evangelistic work should be avoided.

One of the Richmond delegates returned on the train arriving here at 7:45 o'clock.
The association will be in session two more days before all work is completed.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING NEWS

There is no denying the fact that the supply of good, rentable houses in Richmond is not equal to the demand on the part of good paying renters. An investor in the city is always looking for a place to build, and the limited number of houses marked for rent and available September 1st, prove this beyond question. It is more than likely that this condition of affairs will start up fresh a building boom.

There are evidences that such will be the case, the best evidence being that whenever an auction sale of eligible vacant lots is announced, it attracts buyers who do not go to every sale, men who have no money, but who are willing to invest, and when they get that buying vacant lots and building upon them comfortable houses for rent is a good investment, they attend auction sales and watch closely for bargains.

A well-known real estate agent produces that much Richmond property will be bought for this purpose in the near future.

J. Thompson Brown and Company sold five lots a lump on Ivy Street, near Strawberry yesterday for $4,400. The lots were knocked out to Wyatt and others, and it is understood that "Wyatt and others" constitute a syndicate, which has purchased the lots as an investment, and that it is the purpose of the syndicate to erect houses for rent on these lots.

Another cloudy, rainy and sloppy day made the real estate business quite dull yesterday. There were no auction sales, and none of the agencies reported private sales. Some of the agencies were not so busy as they have been in the past few days.

FREAK POSTAL CARDS CAN'T GO FOR A CENT

Leather Card, Especially Popular, is Outlawed if Writing is On It.

The postoffice people are having a great deal of trouble with fancy postal cards.
Dealers in notions and fancy goods have put out thousands of novel and fantastical so-called postal cards, with humorous pictures and designs on one side, and prize matter on the reverse. One side of the card is left for the sender to write a line or two, and that is where the freak postal cards bump up against the laws, rules and regulations of the Postoffice Department. These laws provide that all postal cards, to get through the mail at a one-cent rate, must be made of cardboard similar to that used by the government in making the regular postal card. If a card is made of any other material it comes under the head of merchandise, and it is a law providing the signature of the sender, it becomes first-class matter, and a two-cent stamp is necessary to carry them; and if a two-cent stamp is not attached the card remains in the office where deposited, and is not sent.

INVESTIGATIONS ARE PREPARING REPORT

Legislative Committee to Look Into V. M. I. Affair, Ending Labors.

The committee on the investigation of the affairs of the Virginia Military Institute, composed of Delegates J. R.
Swift, of Spotsylvania; Senators William B. Garrett, of Henry, and Lewis H.
Machen, of Alexandria, and Delegate R.
E. Peyton, of this city, were in the city all day yesterday, engaged in preparing the report on their findings.

The committee continued its meeting last night, but were able to get through only the rough draft of a report, which is said to be very lengthy, covering between four and five hundred pages. The report cannot be filed today, owing to the enforced departure of one of the members from the city, and it may be two or three days before it can be sent to the Governor.

The committee was occupied six days in its sitting, and during that time accumulated a vast amount of evidence, as every detail was carefully gone into.
What the nature of the report is cannot be said, as none of the members are

MANY CHANGES IN OFFICE SYSTEM

Part of Chesapeake and Ohio Clerical Force Now in Whitlock Building.

MUCH CRAMPED FOR ROOM

In Few Years New and Permanent Headquarters Will Be Necessary.

The additional offices for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway located in the Whitlock building, adjoining the regular office (Pace) building of the system, which were necessitated by the expansion in all the departments of the railway, have been furnished and completed, and the accounting department has moved into these new headquarters.

This move was occasioned by the steadily increasing volume of business which has been going on for some years, and by the simultaneous increase of the clerical force to meet the larger demands; but it may be regarded as only a temporary headquarters, for it is understood that even the present increased office room will be soon outgrown and that the management is determining in the next two or three years either to secure an entirely new office building or to take office in a larger building that will be entirely convenient and suitable for the present and future needs of the system.

The Whitlock building has been leased for two or three years, after which new and permanent offices will be secured.
The newly opened offices are occupied by L. B. Enslow, auditor of disbursements, and G. W. Poe, auditor of passenger receipts, on the second floor, and the building. The entire third floor is occupied by O. D. James, auditor of freight receipts. In addition, the management is perfecting arrangements for a board room, which has now become an absolute necessity. This will be in the offices at present occupied by Mr. E. Spoor, chief clerk to the president, and adjoining the office of the president, on the second floor. The room next to the president's office, and now occupied by the freight traffic manager, will be used for the chief clerk to the president, and also as an entrance for callers to the president's office. These changes are now under way and will be completed within a week or ten days.

Others to move into the new building are Mr. Lowry, and the freight claim department under Mr. Gilbert and Comptroller L. F. Sullivan, all of whom will move to the second floor. Mr. C. B. Ball will move from the top floor of the old building to make room for T. C. Cabell, chief of maintenance of way. The Paces of Purchasing Agent W. P. La-Bonte, who has moved down to the corner of the building on the ground floor, is being remodeled for the use of freight. Freight Agent Lehman and General Agent Cary, of the Kanawha Dispatch, Contracting Agent Macon and Traveling Freight Agent Brander will also move from across the street into the offices being prepared on the ground floor of the general building office.

RAISED ROW BECAUSE LAUNDRY WAS LOST

Proprietor Draws Pistol on Negro, Who Has Him Carried to Court.

Mr. B. Florheim, proprietor of the Royal and the New York Laundries, was in Police Court yesterday morning on the charge of threatening to shoot Browley Young, a negro, who claimed that all of his laundry was not returned to him.

The testimony showed that the negro had entered the Royal Laundry and created a disturbance, after having been paid 75 cents for seven collars, that he claimed had been lost. He claimed that he had a suit of underwear in the laundry, and that he had a disturbance about it. When he was ordered out of the place at the point of a revolver, he swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr.
Florheim.

WORKED, PERHAPS, AS PARTNERS IN CRIME

Detectives Wren and Wiltshire arrested a negro, named Dave Taylor, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for breaking into the store of T. W. Wood & Sons, at 1701 East Franklin Street last Sunday, and robbing the cash register of $10 and securing a pair of pants.
